

Committee Given Zoning Headache

In one of its best attended meetings in many months, the Civic Affairs Committee of the Orinda Association grappled with several problems related to planning Monday night.

Presence of nearly 40 persons—over 25 of them visitors concerned with the problems discussed—necessitated switching the meeting from the Orinda School library to the school auditorium.

The varied problems, all of them revolving around the vital pivot of master planning for Orinda, were referred to the Planning Committee of Civic Affairs, with a request from Civic Affairs Chairman Frank Hart that the Planning Committee make definite proposals at the June 15 Civic Affairs meeting. (See other stories.)

Boone Robinson, a member of the Planning Committee, agreed that the group would make a study and would offer proposals at next month's Civic Affairs session.

Other members of the Planning Committee are: Donn Sigerson, chairman; E. J. Fowler Jr., William Penn Mott Jr. and Joseph Creighton.

DESPITE THE FLOW of words and the complexity of issues, Hart kept the evening's business clicking, with the result that the meeting was adjourned at 9:20.

Thus the one-hour-and-20-minute session became something of a near-record in timing, just as the 40 persons constituted something of a near-record in attendance.

MUCH OF THE ATTENDANCE was due to the discussion of plans of owners of five Moraga Estates lots on the east side of Moraga Highway, between Southwood Drive and Overhill Road, to seek rezoning of their property from residential to retail business. This matter had been announced in advance as being on the agenda.

After spirited discussion, pro and con, Hart said further study by the Civic Affairs Committee is necessary. "Please, best with us, and we'll do more research and come up with a decision," he promised.

The lot owners, several of whom were present, are Dr. Wilbert F. Thomas, dentist who lives in Piedmont and practices in Oakland; F. W. Curtis, George O. Warner, Frank Batty, Merle A. Lindblom, L. H. Ed. Brooke and V. E. Baumgardner.

IN A LETTER to Civic Affairs the owners had announced their intention of seeking County Planning Commission approval of the rezoning and had requested Orinda Association approval.

The new freeway will come directly to our property, particularly Mr. Batty's and mine," Curtis told the meeting. "We're right in line with Bradley's Market."

"I've been living on Moraga Highway since 1945. At that time it was a little country lane, with practically no traffic. It's going to be necessary before too long to widen Moraga Highway. If traffic increases proportionately, the road will be practically a boulevard."

Referring to the five lots, Curtis continued:

"OUR PROPERTY has 2.68 acres, adequate for a shopping area and parking space. It's an excellent place for a shopping area."

"The most rapid growth in the Orinda area has been on Moraga Highway recently. I see no reason why that shouldn't continue."

"Aside from the fact that our property is not so valuable as residential property as it once was, we feel it advisable to rezone for retail business for the good of the community."

"WE MOVED to Orinda in order to live in the country. Now there's a new situation. Soon there won't be a Crossroads."

"If our request is considered at this time, that would be good planning—not piecemeal planning."

Warner agreed with Curtis. "I came out here about five years ago, for country living," he said. "Now the property is one dirty spot. It's no longer residential property. But it's fit for business."

OPPOSITION to the rezoning plan was expressed by Dr. Stewart Kimball of Moraga Estates, Ronald Larsen of Northwood Drive and others.

"This request should have properly been brought to the homeowners' association, Orindans, Inc.," Dr. Kimball said. He added that he was speaking as an individual, although he is a member of Orindans, Inc., and is on that organization's building committee.

"This makes a new frontier," he continued. "The people who will be next to this new frontier won't like it. If the business section is moved a little farther and a little farther, pretty soon there's nothing left."

"I THINK WE NEED a transition zone. The apartment house going up back of the Union Oil Station is a good example of that. Everybody seems agreed that the structure is architecturally pleasing."

"I suggest that the corner of Southwood and Moraga Highway be a transition zone."

Larsen stated he moved to Orinda in order to come "from the city to the country," and he emphasized he wanted a country environment continued in Orinda.

LARSEN'S REMARKS were directed against the five-lot plan and also against a request from Alta Treney for approval of her plans to convert her eight-room house at Northwood drive into a medical-dental building.

Mrs. Treney, in a letter to Civic Affairs, stated that the house, just above the Union Oil Station, has a 40-by-40-foot basement and that off-street parking could be provided for 48 cars.

She said she wished to have her land rezoned or to obtain a land use

Commuter Action Gets Resumption Of Oakland Runs

Following prompt action by the Contra Costa Commuters Association, Oakland commute service by Pacific Greyhound Lines was brought back to normal on Monday, the association announced yesterday.

The direct schedule to Oakland which passes Orinda at 8:02 a.m. and the run leaving Oakland depot at 5:30 p.m. were reinstated, the association reported.

These runs had been canceled on May 6, when the improved commute service to San Francisco was inaugurated.

STRONG COMPLAINTS about this curtailment had then come from commuters and Oaklanders, and the Commuters Association moved fast to see that the reinstatement came with a minimum of delay.

Association Vice-President Del Armstrong said that the California Public Utilities Commission had been most helpful in checking service and making it clear that the schedule adjustments were definitely needed.

"IT IS PHYSICALLY impossible for working commuters to give up sufficient time to make 2½ hour checks morning and evening at Orinda, San Francisco and various points in Oakland; so the experienced staff of the commission did an excellent, comprehensive job, and the association is most grateful for the manner in which the commission made it clear that the service would have to be improved," Armstrong said.

The morning schedules of the Danville-Oakland and Martinez-Berkeley buses are also being checked to find out if the 10-minute change made on May 6 is a step in the wrong direction, according to the association.

This is a result of protest by Danville-San Francisco passengers and those who commute from Pleasant Hill to San Francisco.

Aside from this, the association reports to its membership that the service is now—at least for the present—adequate to take care of all regular commuters, with a minimum of standing.

Parents Told Of Damage by Kids At School Site

A notice has been sent home to Orinda parents by Superintendent of Schools Joseph Sheaff, calling attention to the damage done by school children at the site of the new school.

Sheaff also asked co-operation of parents at the Orinda Mothers Club meeting Tuesday.

"We feel that we should bring this to your attention because actually work at the new school has only started," Sheaff said. "If this damage is kept up in proportion as the construction progresses, it will be difficult for the contractor to complete the school anywhere near the time called for on his contract. He has contacted the sheriff's office and is very much concerned."

The contractor complained that over the last week-end the lumber carrier on the site was tampered with, the windshield broken and the battery run down.

Also, Sheaff reported, five links of sewer pipe were broken that were already installed in the open trench, and a considerable amount of dirt, rocks and clods were thrown into the ditches, and all this had to be removed.

The contractor told Sheaff that apparently the damage was done only during the week-end.

"We are appealing to the children at school," the superintendent said, "and we would appreciate your help at home. Some day this site will have a playground, but as yet it doesn't have one." He said there is plenty of room to play on the site other than around the construction materials and equipment, however.

Sheaff also asked the mothers to get their children to bring home food from their lunches that they do not eat. He pointed out that there is an appalling waste of food daily at the school; that many of the lunches aren't even opened, and that in many cases when they are opened a great deal of untouched fruit, et cetera, is left to waste."

Weather—Women, Unpredictable

The weatherman looked a little bit moody as we walked into his office to get the weather report. He explained that it was because the weather has been so unpredictable that even he was having a rough time, and he is an expert.

"The high for the period of May 14 through yesterday was 68 degrees on the 14th," he said, looking gloomily at a Pyrantha bush struggling to grow in its adobe. "The low was 41 degrees on Wednesday," he added.

He also pointed out that we had .01 inches of rain, just enough to bring the seasonal total to an even 30 inches.

THAT NEW PHONE at Orinda Fire Station No. 1 is already in use. Installed for the convenience of Moraga Del Rey residents, the new line has the number DRake 6-4400, and is an addition to the phones numbered Orinda 6666. Receiving one of the first calls over the new phone is Fireman Ernie Hendricks (seated), while Assistant Fire Chief Allen Winsor jots down a record of the call and Inspector William Koch looks on. No, it wasn't a fire call — it was a request for information about burning regulations. — SUN Photo by Matison

Orinda Fireman Has Art Exhibit At Oakland Store

Bruce Minney has been an Orinda fireman for six months—but he's been an art student and artist much longer than that.

So it doesn't come as such a surprise to his buddies in the Orinda Fire Department that 18 of his oil paintings are now on exhibit at the Gray Shop on Broadway in Oakland.

Minney, 24, studied for four and a half years at the College of Arts and Crafts in Oakland, where he graduated in 1951.

The exhibit at the Gray Shop includes landscapes, figures and still lifes. It opened May 11 and will continue until June 5.

Minney is now working on a series of water-color instructional charts to be used by the Orinda Fire Department in instruction of new firemen.

The young artist-fireman lives with his wife, Doris, and their 2-year-old daughter, Carole, at 3043 Brook Street, Oakland. They're planning to move to Orinda in the next half-year or so.

Rotary Presents Field Day Awards

Highlights of the Orinda Rotary Club meeting Wednesday noon at the Willows was the awarding of prizes to the winners in the Annual Field Day held at Orinda School Saturday.

Donna Jamison, eighth grader at Orinda School took first place among the girls and George Cory, seventh grader at Orinda School took first place in the boys' division.

The eighth grade class of Ted Boyce, Orinda School, won the Hauser cup for achieving the highest points from total members participating in the meet. It was gratefully accepted on behalf of the class by Gary Arel.

Rotarians pointed out that Donna Jamison is a two-time winner, having taken first place two years ago when she was a sixth grader.

They also wished to extend thanks to the parents who cooperated fully to make the meeting a success and to the Mothers Club which provided a wonderful refreshment stand. Thanks were also tendered to Frank Isola, Physical Education Director for the school district, for his help.

During the rest of the meeting the Rotarians saw a film on heart disease presented by Rotarian Dr. Carl W. Smith. Next week another film, "Sierra Adventure," will be presented by Rev. Fred Morrow and Ewart Phair, Rotarians.

Highway Group Calls for Meet With Truckers

The Diablo Highway Federation Tuesday night called for a meeting June 16 between the federation and the new president of the Contra Costa Truck Owners Association to discuss the problem of trucks on the highway during commuter hours.

In other action the federation approved the plans of the State Division of Highways for the proposed freeway connecting the Orinda Overpass and the proposed Lafayette By-pass.

THE BOARD of directors of the federation met at the home of Chairman Elliot Hartman, Hidden Valley, Lafayette.

Representatives of the Orinda Association and the Lafayette Improvement Association have been invited to attend the meeting with the new president of the truckers association.

It was at the request of the two community groups that the Highway Federation took action in the matter. The meeting will be held at the home of Vice-Chairman Charles Nelson, 10 Orchard Court, Orinda.

Regarding the proposed six-lane freeway which will join the Orinda Overpass and the proposed Lafayette by-pass, the federation unanimously approved the plans and has notified the county board of supervisors of its approval.

CONSTRUCTION of the Orinda Overpass is scheduled to start this summer. Construction of the Lafayette by-pass and the joining link will depend on the allocation of state highway funds.

The second camp-out of the season will be at Indian Beach tomorrow and will include both troops. The scouts will leave the Scout Hut at 7:30 a.m. and return early Sunday afternoon. Forty-four boys have signed up to go.

On June 6 and 7 there will be a joint paper drive in which the two troops will continue their efforts to raise funds for Guide Dogs for the Blind.

Troop 207 will hold a board of review June 2 and a Court of Honor June 16.

Bradley's Market Bought by State

Don Bradley, owner of Bradley's Market, 200 Brookwood Road, said yesterday that his property is in the process of being purchased by the State Division of Highways.

The Highways Division is purchasing the property in order to permit a cloverleaf portion of the Orinda Interchange to be constructed.

Bradley said that he has until September 1 to vacate the site and the sale had been made on the state's terms. Negotiations were handled by Harry L. Kagan, right-of-way agent for the State Division of Highways, and Ross Core of Richmond, attorney for Bradley.

Any extension of time permitting the market to function longer would have to be granted by the state on its initiative, Bradley said.

Bradley said he has been plagued with highway troubles, because only recently a car on Brookwood Road slipped its brakes, rolled down the slope and crashed into his store. Bradley had moved his store from the north side of the Crossroads to avoid being in the path of the Freeway.

Bradley said that he has no plans for the future right now.

Pine Grove Future Stirs New Dispute

Site Being Bought From EBMUD for Medical Building

Plans for a modern professional building on the west side of Orinda Highway across from Orinda School, with emphasis on medical and dental offices, were disclosed yesterday.

At the same time it was revealed that the Church of Latter Day Saints is interested in the land between the professional building site and Country Club Realty.

Both plots of land are East Bay Municipal Utility District property. Purchase of the professional building site by Robert Bolman and Dr. W. M. Caygill is now in progress.

The Church of Latter Day Saints is making a survey of the site just north of that, according to Phil Wagner, manager of the EBMUD properties division.

However, no sale transaction with the Mormon Church has yet taken place, Wagner said.

Wagner said he had received a deposit from Bolman, who lives at 50 Camino Lenada, and Dr. Caygill, of 11 Moraga Highway, for the three-acre parcel across from Orinda School.

Bolman, vice-president of the Oakland Bank of Commerce, said it is hoped to start construction on the professional building early next year.

BOLMAN SAID he has been "working closely with EBMUD to provide an adequate building for doctors and dentists, with adequate off-street parking and a type of architecture in keeping with the historical background of the area and which we hope will be an inspiration to the designing of future business buildings in this area."

"We're looking ahead 10 years," Bolman continued. "We're thinking of a one-story building with 10,000 square feet of floor space and adequate off-street parking for more than 100 cars."

"We're very sensitive to three factors—the need of the community for a building in the medical and professional field, architecture in keeping with the background of the community, and adequate parking space."

THE LAND IS NOW in an R-A zone. Bolman said rezoning or a large use permit will be a necessary part of the transaction.

"We will ask for this immediately," he said. "Everything is being done to speed the way for construction. A survey is being made now."

Bolman added that, realizing community needs, he had started planning for the structure in 1949 with the idea of "an integrated plan to fit in with future plans for business development in Orinda and to provide adequate medical facilities."

RUMORS that EBMUD had been approached for sale of land in the vicinity of a hospital were denied by Wagner.

Wagner stated that no other pieces of property in the Orinda area had been sold by EBMUD recently and that no negotiations were on for sale of any other parcels.

State Asked for Overhead Walks

A pedestrian sidewalk system at the Orinda Interchange was requested this week of the State Division of Highways.

The Orinda Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday voted to ask the Highways Division to construct an overhead walk from the present Crossroads to the Pine Grove area and another walkway to the west side of Orinda Highway.

ON MONDAY NIGHT the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee asked the association board to take similar action.

Ramsay Underwood discussed the problem at both the chamber and Civic Affairs meetings. He pointed out that Phil Wagner, properties division manager for East Bay Municipal Utility District, had suggested to highway officials that an overhead walk be built from where the Shell service station now is to the Pine Grove land.

THE STATE PLANS originally showed just a walk across the freeway, with islands. Underwood said, "That would be dangerous."

At the chamber session, the need for good sidewalk connections was discussed at length.

Fire District Hearings Set

The County Board of Supervisors Tuesday set June 18 for hearings on the proposed withdrawal of the Moraga Del Rey School property from the Contra Costa County Fire Protection District and for its annexation to the Orinda County Fire Protection District.

The withdrawal was scheduled for 10 a. m. and the annexation hearing for 11 a. m.

Both hearings will be before the Board of Supervisors in Martinez.

The action was taken as a result of a petition filed by the Orinda School District trustees.

Allen Attacks EBMUD Proposal for New Business Section at Crossroads

Future development of the Pine Grove land at the north-east corner of Orinda Crossroads again was the subject of spirited comment this week.

The topic came up at the luncheon meeting of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce at Casa Orinda Tuesday.

Ross Looked but No Land Sale, Wagner Reports

Rumors that Philip Ross is "dickering" with East Bay Municipal Utility District for the entire 315 acres of EBMUD land from the Crossroads to Charles Hill Road were denied this week.

The denial was by Phil Wagner, manager of the EBMUD properties division.

However, Wagner admitted that Ross, representative of a holding company which purchased the Wildcat Canyon area several months ago, had looked at the land here.

"But it was only a glint in his eye," Wagner said. "He's also looked at a lot of other land. There have been no commitments or transactions regarding the Orinda land."

Plans for Bus Shelter Here Still Uncertain

The problem of relocating the bus-waiting shelter here and of having adequate parking space for commuters' cars occupied the attention of both the Orinda Chamber of Commerce and the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee this week.

Ramsay Underwood reported to both groups that a triangular area on the west side of Orinda Highway, across from the Christian Science Church, would be suitable for the shelter and commuter parking if the creek were filled in.

HOWEVER, THE EAST BAY Municipal Utility District, owner of the land, has made previous commitments, Underwood said.

Underwood told Civic Affairs that Phil Wagner, EBMUD properties division manager, had put him and John Stoffel in touch with the people involved and that these people, who prefer to be nameless, seemed agreeable.

"By leveling off the knob to fill in the creek, there would be quite a large area of level, solid ground, adequate for at least 100 cars," Underwood said.

PARKING LOTS behind the Orinda Theater and behind Sproule-Reitz "are pretty well filled up," he added.

The site opposite the Christian Science Church would be just off the freeway route and so could be used as a bus stop. Underwood pointed out.

He said the latest estimate is that construction of the interchange could start about August 1.

Six Inch Water Main Breaks

A six-inch cast iron water main at Overhill Road and Seenic Drive broke Monday flooding the area with water.

The main, property of East Bay Municipal Utility District, was broken by a contractor working in the area, according to EBMUD spokesmen.

They also stated that minor damage occurred to two homes on Overhill Road.

EBMUD explained that they had a crew on the spot and the water shut off within 15 minutes of the time the break occurred (about 2:15) but that it was some time before service could be restored to the area.

It is believed that the break was caused by the contractor's tractor going over a newly filled trench.

Orindan Leaves $61,798 Estate

The estate of George W. Howson, 118 Camino Don Miguel, was valued at $61,798 in an appraisal on file at the office of County Clerk Walter T. Pasch.

Howson died last August 7, leaving his wife, Gertrude A. Howson, as the sole beneficiary of the estate.

He was engineer on construction of Memorial Stadium, Sather Gate and Library at the University of California. He was graduated from the university in 1909 and was employed by the state water research planning board for many years.

Subdivision Ordinance Hearings Will Start Thursday

First of two public hearings on the draft of the proposed new subdivision ordinance will be held at 9 a.m. Thursday before the County Board of Supervisors in Martinez.

Second public hearing has been scheduled for June 11, 9 a.m.

The board has stated that it will try to take action on the proposed ordinance within two weeks after the second public hearing.

Leading up to this latest schedule have been over two years of activity by public and private groups and individuals concerned with evolving a satisfactory subdivision ordinance.

The hearing dates were set by the supervisors last week when District Attorney Francis Collins presented the board with the ordinance.

"BEING PROPOSED" is a cleaning-up and streamlining of subdivision procedure to make it more in keeping with present-day requirements," Deputy District Attorney Matthew Walker stated later.

Walker described some of the highlights of the 11-page single-spaced proposed ordinance and the attached 15 pages (also single-spaced) of suggested subdivision improvement specifications as:

1. UNIFORM STREET specifications, similar to those "being adopted by all the cities and counties in the Bay Area."

2. Designation of major drainage channels to take care of 50-year, 25-year and 10-year runoffs.

3. Permission for the County Planning Commission to require subdividers to allow space for possible future public areas such as school sites and freeways, as well as access for school buses.

This third point, Walker said, is open to question on a state constitutional basis, "so the wording of it isn't too strong."

"ACTUALLY," Walker stressed, "the big handle" will be the Master Plan to be developed within the next few years. Plans for any subdivision will be referred to the Master Plan and will be required to conform to it."

Many of the provisions of the proposed ordinance are based on recommendations by C. C. Rich, engineer for the Contra Costa Flood Control and Soil Conservation District, Walker said.

The 15 pages of suggested specifications are the general recommendations of the East Bay Chapter of the American Public Works Association, Chester Smith, chief deputy county surveyor, attended sessions of that body and had its set of standards mimeographed.

GREATHER WIDTH requirement

MUSIC AND CURVED BARS will share the limelight in events of this area during the coming week. for acceptance of roads by the county is contained in the proposals, according to Walker.

"Greater right-of-way width is being proposed," he said. "The present right-of-way width requirement is 50 feet. Under the new setup it is suggested that the required right-of-way width be anywhere from 50 to 100 feet in many cases."

"Larger width for curb and gutter space is another feature of the proposed ordinance. In many cases there is now no requirement for curb and gutter space."

"A STREET WITH 50-foot right-of-way width would have to include about 36 feet of paving, including the curb and gutter space, under the proposed ordinance. At present only 20 feet of paving width is required for 50-foot right-of-way width."

"Adequate space for driving and parking is a major consideration in the proposed new specifications."

SURVEY MONUMENTS, or markers, would be practically certain to be accurate if the new ordinance goes through, Walker pointed out.

"We're asking for improvement as to survey monuments," he said. "Better, closer and more frequent checking on survey monuments would be effected.

"That should be of special interest to Lafayette, where there is considerable confusion as to property lines in Lafayette Meadows."

SMITH SAID that in addition to street width requirements, the proposed specifications include requirements for thicknesses of pavement.

These, like numerous other specification proposals, are from the recommendations of the East Bay Chapter of the American Public Works Association, the chief deputy county surveyor stated.

Benes has been interested in woodcarving since childhood and has studied art throughout the years he has been in consular, diplomatic, and newspaper work.

Arthur Dambacher, Mrs. Muriel Gray, Mrs. Dorothy Lamb, a part-time teacher, Mrs. Fern Phillips and James Wilhelm were rehired for their fourth year and tenure.

The board also voted to raise the salaries of classified, noncertificated employees with an average approximate five per cent wage raise.

The board voted to match the student body music department and Acalanes Parents' Club donations to purchase the Acalanes Mixed Chorus choir robes. Dr. Ralph Hall, trustee, was named to act as the board's representative in presenting diplomas at the coming Acalanes graduation exercises.

Shadelands' History Illustrates What Can Be Done by Parents' Drive

Many parents who attended the Open House at Shadelands School in Walnut Creek April 16 realized a dream "come true" for their children afflicted with cerebral palsy.

The idea to start a school for children with cerebral palsy in East Contra Costa County was conceived during the latter part of 1951 when a group of parents of cerebral palsied children got together and formed the Contra Costa Cerebral Palsy Society. Walter F. Rhoades, president of the society, had moved from Richmond to Walnut Creek and realized the need for such a school in this area. He found other parents just as interested in starting such a school and together they started the ball rolling by going to the Mt. Diablo Therapy center. Mrs. Gene Newman, formerly of Richmond, went to Martinez and talked to Dr. Marion Jofephi of the County Health Department.

The Mt. Diablo Unified School District was aware that such a school was needed in East Contra Costa County and particular interest from the parents group stimulated them to decide that something should be done about it.

Shadelands Ranch on Ygnacio Valley Road was offered to the school district for a tentative period at no cost and with a teacher, therapist and matron and regular school supplies provided by the school district and county, the school was ready for its first group of children last October.

Special equipment for such a school is essential and required by state law. The school is entirely dependent on voluntary help and donations for this special equipment.

All children from the East Contra Costa area who need this special training are eligible to enter Shadelands and according to the county health department there are more than 50 children in the area that need such schooling. The school has room for only some 12 children at one time who attend a regular school year during the usual school morning and afternoon hours.

Mrs. Mary Margaret Cherok is the teacher, Mrs. David Bowman, therapist and Mrs. Kiehne is matron. Special teachers, such as speech instructors, spend a certain number of hours a week at the school.

Contra Costa Cerebral Palsy Society meets once a month to help iron out problems that may arise at the school and to make plans for a larger school so that all East Contra Costa children can get the training they need at Shadelands and without waiting their turn.

Forty Discuss Zoning Requests At Civic Affairs

permit, so as to effect the change. BEFORE THE GENERAL discussion on the two requests started, Chairman Hart sought to gauge sentiment by asking those opposed to the proposed rezoning to stand, and then asking those in favor of it to stand.

Sixteen persons stood up as against the rezoning. Six stood up as in favor of it.

The discussion followed. At the end of it, Hart said:

"WE HAVE A PROBLEM to solve. It'll be difficult to solve without some hard feelings resulting. The problem of planning is so acute that the County Planning Commission is going to spend some $700,000 in developing a Master Plan.

"We can't give you an answer tonight. The problem will have to be solved by the County Planning Commission and by the Planning Committee of Civic Affairs.

"The new freeway intersection is going to dislocate some of our lives for the time being and will rearrange some of our property.

"Please bear with us, and we'll do more research and come up with a decision."

"We've got to get some group in Orinda to start deciding how big the future commercial development here is going to be."

About our happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

During our brief span on earth (brief only in comparison to such other worthies as Methusala, Ulysses S. Grant and Grandma Moses) we have regarded May Festivals as operations of consistent pattern and never changing flavor. But this year something new was added.

AS YOU ALREADY know if you are a Mother, or a friend of a Mother, the school performance was in the middle of May instead of the first because dancing in the rain, while carried off with aplomb by Gene Kelly, is inconsistent with the general concept of May Festivals. Every thing went along according to our preconceived notions until the eighth grade turned up to do the Hitch Hiking Boogie—well, sir—that was a near approach to a rug cutting antic and the audience fairly bounced right along with them. (Sort of like the contagion of the new jazzed up music at the Orinda Store—it throws you into such a terpsichorean mood that you "tour jete" past the dog food and land doing a bit of "bee-bop" in front of the canned soups.)

But back to school—the grand wind-up was put on by all the grades and was an earthy little soula and dance routine entitled the "hokey pokey" and although we would like to mention that it was very catchy and very cute we would also like to throw in the observation that times have certainly changed since we were a girl.

And so—Tea Party Time—Mrs. Victor Cranston entertained recently for her daughter-in-law-to-be's mother and her daughter-in-law-to-be, Mrs. Rees Davis and Miss Carolyn Davis; which is without doubt the all time jumbled up method of stating the facts but just how would you say it? Well, anyway it was a beautiful party and the following ladies poured: Mesdames Gregory Harrier, Eric Wellington, Earl Nittinger and William Strickland. Assisting were Mesdames Kendric Morrish, Lyle York, John Ferri and Harold Noack. Inasmuch as parking is always a problem the Country Folk would prefer not to discuss, this might be a good time to bring the skeleton out of the closet. The Cranston system is to elicit the aid of Dave Cranston as a shuttle service conductor who drives the ladies in and out while at the same time parking their cars elsewhere which is a good trick if you can work it. It also gives the guest an added filip because she can arrive with her gloves on, her veil down and her spirits up. Very nice party.

The fourth annual exhibit of the Orinda Children's Art Center will be Wednesday at the home of Mrs. T. M. Harrier. The outside terrace and lower gardens will display the oil paintings, pastels and papier-mache primitive masks—the latter being new this year and quite interesting. The display will be from 3 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. Mrs. Richard Tharp is president of the group assisted by Mesdames Charles Gibbs, William Gilman and Joseph Sheaff. Mrs. George Clifford is art instructor and Mrs. Carl Meurk is craft instructor.

ONE REASON it is fun to live in the country is because people do such unorthodox things. For instance, the day before the Orinda Branch house tour Mrs. Lyle York was half way up a telephone pole on Miner Road nailing a HOUSE TOUR sign to guide the lost souls from the big city. A car full of ladies arrived and wanted more explicit guidance so Mrs. York scrambled down the pole, told them where to go, and then sold them six tickets so they could get in after they got there.

Another situation is the race for the greased pig. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moylan with Helen, Henry and baby Robert spent a weekend recently at the Robert Dalters' Ranch. One of the entertainments provided was a 4-H show in Mariposa where skills as well as animals were in competition. The high point of activity was the race where two teams of three boys each pursued the fatted pork and to behold Jimmy Dollar accomplished the impossible.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wist have returned from Pomona where they visited Mrs. Wist's sister, Mrs. H. E. Roo, and then on to Huntington Beach where they visited Mrs. Whist's father, Mr. C. Livingston.

ON MONDAY LAST the well washed faces of Girl Scout Troop 86 beamed upon a collection of proud parents and proceeded with their Court of Awards dinner and festivities. The mothers of the group seem to be casserole and salad concoctors par excellence and, of course, the young ladies performed cleverly and well, thanks to the arduous efforts of Mrs. Joseph Nicolet and Mrs. Boone Robinson aided and abetted in moments of need by Mrs. Joseph Lang. It strikes us that the leaders should have received some sort of reward, too—probably theirs is one of satisfaction in knowing that it was a job well done—anyway the other parents of Troop 86 know and appreciate what they have accomplished.

Fascinating visitor at the Walter Boydens, Mrs. Boyden's girlhood friend Miss Lois Berney, is of particular interest because 1) She was secretary to Harry Hopkins then 2) to Mark Clark during the Salerno invasion 3) was with the American embassy in Latvia during the Russian invasion and 4) has just now returned from Italy where she was with our embassy. Wouldn't you like to be a mouse in the corner and listen in on the conversations?

Birthday party for Lyle York with cocktails and delightful food on which to nibble, or, if you wanted to, really eat.

And so THAT'S IS ALL for us but here is what Allen Bottomly scooped for you:

Not We are not going to give you the words to a song. We just wondered if you have heard that there were several parties before the "DA's" last Friday night. Joe Foster held a dinner at his home. The food was excellent and those there were Jim Hill and Judy Dunn, Bob Crall and Janet Kennedy, Allen Bottomly and Mary Whitlock, and Joe and his date, Katy Hunter.

Pete Sheaff had a dinner party also and those there were Chuck Gompertz and Ann Sparling, Bob Harrison and Peggy Gompertz, Jim Small and Judy Johnson, Ben Randall and Sharon Eggars, Rick Johnson and Marianne Somers, Stan Pedder and Carol Fletcher and Pete and Judy Rounds.

This was the last Diablo Assembly of the year and we think it was one of the best. They had Henry Gallagher's orchestra and the music was neat. All in all, the whole evening, with dinner parties and the "DA's" was really wonderful.

On May 1, the East Bay Pilgrim Fellowship got together for a "wing ding" which we hear was really great. After skating at Rollerland, they went picnicking at Mosswood Park and then ended up the day with a terrific dance at the First Congregational Church in Oakland. Their leaders, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fowler, chaperoned them. A few Orindans seen in the crowd were Joyce and Tania Hudd, Ray and George Sheets, Carl Drews, Janet Johns, Holly Stern, Dawn Bottomley, Bill Mott, Parry Laird, Heather Amber, Hope Davidson and Larry Witter. The Orinda PFFers this Sunday have invited their parents to share in fun and fellowship at a pot luck dinner.

Last Friday night the music department and dance group at Aca-lanes High School presented their annual spring performance. It was called "Musance" and was very good. Afterwards, Lynn Sellman gave a party at her home for the cast and dance group which was loads of fun.

Also, last Sunday night, Malcolm Boyd was the guest speaker for the Orinda Y.P.F. group at the Vicarage. Next year he will graduate from the Divinity School of the Pacific. He is a seminarian there and was a former business partner of the movie star, Mary Pickford.

That's it . . .

Jewish Women to Sponsor Day Camp

The League of Jewish Women of Contra Costa County will sponsor a Day Camp to be held at Aca-lanes High School from June 23 through the month of July.

The camp is open to the entire community for children from the ages of 6 through 16. Plans are now in progress including swimming, arts and crafts, hiking, cook-outs, and group singing, all under the direct supervision of trained professional personnel.

This is the first time the facilities of Aca-lanes High School are being made available for a program of this type.

Persons interested in obtaining further information may contact Mrs. Herman Rosenbloom, chairman of the Day Camp Committee at 44-4491 or Mrs. Lewis Rapoport at Drake 6-4452.

Blind Cub Scouts Enjoy Outing

The baseball game played by a group of Cub Scouts at the McCosker Ranch in Orinda recently was different only in the way it was played; for all the players were blind.

A large rubber ball was tossed or rolled directly at the bat held by a player who swung at the called signal of his sighted advisor. If he made a hit, his guide ran the bases with him.

The ball game was part of the fun program at the picnic for Cub Scout Pack 14 arranged by committeemen of the Pack's sponsoring body, Berkeley Lions Club.

Committee members Dave Hoyt chairman, Lew Moorman, Joe En-triken, Dr. Claude Sutter, John H. McCosker and James Martz are responsible for two such outings a year as well as monthly activities and projects for the boys.

The sixteen Cubs, registered under the Mt. Diablo Council, attend the California School for the Blind in Berkeley where Cubmaster Dr. Charles Buell and Den Mother Mrs. Buell are instructors. Miss Evelyn Marx, on hand to help with the games, is a counselor at the school.

Following the ball game, the boys competed in such games as broadjumping, hand - over - hand rope climbing and tumbling. They are expert tumblers. Then, although a light rain had started, each boy enjoyed a horseback ride around the corral. A picnic lunch was served in the clubhouse by the wives of the committeemen.

The blind Scouts of Troop 2, Mt. Diablo Council, sponsored also by the Berkeley Lions Club and the Cubs will be taken this summer on a two-weeks' camping trip by leaders, committeemen and their wives to La Gualala on the Russian River.

Church Will Note Pentecost Sunday

"Rushing Winds and Tongues of Fire" is the striking sermon-topic announced by Rev. Fred Morrow for the Orinda Community Church service at 11 o'clock Sunday. The church will observe Pentecost Sunday as part of the World Council of Churches.

At the same service the Junior choir directed by Margaret Popovich will replace the Chapel choir in the leadership of the congregational music, singing a 17th Century anthem by Pietatis, "Praise to the Lord, the Almighty." Daniel Popovich will play organ numbers by Mendelssohn and Faure.

The minister and Youth assistant, C. Ray Fowler, will also conduct worship at 9:30 in the chapel, with Ann Larkey as the organist. This earlier service includes young people and adults, who have their own specialized groups following the half-hour worship period.

A program for parents is planned by the Pilgrim Fellowship in the evening at 6:45.

Lutherans Will Note Pentecost

"What are the three great festivals of the Christian Church?" asks Pastor Luther Berven of Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Lafayette.

"Everyone would immediately name Christmas and Easter, but only about one in 10 would be able to name the third — Pentecost, or Whitsunday. Pentecost means 50th and occurs 50 days after Easter.

Sunday morning at both the 8 a. m. and the 11 a. m. services, Pastor Berven will speak on "The Birthday of the Christian Church."

The Sunday School hour begins at 9:30 a. m.

St. Stephen's Plans Food Sale Tomorrow

For a lazy Spring weekend in the life of a modern housewife, nothing can surpass having somebody else do the cooking. And St. Stephen's Episcopal church is having a big food sale tomorrow, beginning at 9 a.m., at the Orinda Hardware Store in the Crossroads shopping center.

All varieties of cooked foods and salads will be available at reasonable prices, according to Mrs. Ida Zamloch, chairman of the St. Stephen's Altar Guild, which is sponsoring the project for the benefit of the new church building which will be constructed in the Charles Hill area on Via Las Cruces.

Those members and friends of St. Stephen's who will contribute food are asked to have their offerings at the store tomorrow at 8:30 a.m. to facilitate arrangement of attractive displays.

Kahn Named to Swan's Board

Robert Kahn, 3367 Moraga Road, Lafayette, has been appointed vice-president and treasurer of Swan's in Oakland.

The appointment was announced recently by Sherwood Swan, president.

Kahn is a member of a pioneer Oakland department store family and has just returned from French Morocco, where he served as a lieutenant colonel with the U. S. Air Force.

Kahn is a member of the Citizens' Advisory Committee to the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District.

St. Stephen's to Mark Whitsunday

Ranking in religious importance with the holidays of Easter and Christmas, Whitsunday will be celebrated at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church with a Holy Communion service conducted by the Reverend Charles M. Hill Sunday afternoon at 5 p.m. in the Orinda Community Church building.

Marking the coming of the Holy Ghost to the Apostles, and the birthday of the Church, the day of Whitsunday or Pentecost commemorates the fulfillment of Christ's promises to his followers, and the start of the Christian religion as we know it today, said Rev. Hill.

Organ music will include "Cathedral Prelude" by Johannes Flag and "Postlude in E. Opus 28, No. 7" by Christian Cappelen, according to Mrs. T. J. Fahay, organist and choirmaster. St. Stephen's Choir will offer Beethoven's "The Heavens Are Telling."

Word has been received from St. Hill, Vicar of St. Stephen's, that memorial funds are now being accepted by the Orinda Church. Acknowledgement cards have been printed which may be sent to relatives of the person thus honored, thereby avoiding the necessity of the hand-written card which has been used in the past.

Holy Spirit to Be Sermon Topic

For his sermon on Pentecost Sunday, Rev. Peterson has chosen to speak on the subject "The Holy Spirit and You." He will use as his text, Ephesians 5:18 — "Do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery; but be filled with the Spirit. What is the Holy Spirit? He does He do, and what can He do for you?" Those are some of the questions that Rev. Peterson will deal with.

The evening service at 7 will take the form of a panel discussion on the parable of the Talents (Matthew 25). Four of the laymen will give three-minute messages on the various phases of the parable, and then both the audience and the panel members will participate in the discussion.

The Vacation Bible School will be held at the Covenant Church June 15 to 26. All children are welcome. There will be classes for all ages through the eighth grade.

Tonight the mothers and daughters will meet for their annual banquet in the church parlors. Mrs. Hazel Custer will be the speaker.

Couples Club To Have Party

The Couples Club of the Lafayette Community Methodist Church will have a "Kids Party" Wednesday at the church at 8 p.m.

Members have been instructed that they will wear a "Kids" costume or pay the penalty.

Chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Roper and committee members are Messers, and Mesdames Boardy Moore, Martin Lewis, William Whor-tan and Archie Brock.

All young couples are welcome. The group meets the fourth Wednesday of each month.

Once Again... Family Portrait

MR. AND MRS. DAVID B. STEWART of 1122 Palomares Court, Lafayette, moved to this area in 1946, when Mr. Stewart returned from World War II military service in Europe.

"We enjoy the country way of life," Mrs. Stewart explains, "so we settled here."

Today the family, pictured here at their home, consists of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart and three children — Mary, 6½ (in center), a first grader at Montecito School; David, 5 (at right), and Bobby, 2.

Also an important part of the home life is the family pet, Red, an Irish setter.

Mr. Stewart is dean of boys at Acaalanes High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart first met at the University of California campus, as freshman students in a Shakespeare class of the late Professor Guy Montgomery.

Mr. Stewart describes his hobbies as "garden- ing and all sports and the problems of young people." Mrs. Stewart says, "My hobby is my home." But she has other interests, too. At present she is braiding a rug at night school. She worked in the recent annual Red Cross fund drive.

She's a member of the Gamma Phi Beta alumnae group of Contra Costa County. At Cal she was a Mortar Board, a Phi Beta Kappa and a Prytaneean.

All three children love outdoor play, including riding bikes and climbing trees. They're learning to swim. Mary is already an avid reader.

The Stewart home is on part of the old Barrows ranch near Acaalanes High School. General Barrows is Mr. Stewart's grandfather.

Their suggestions for improving the community? Both Mr. and Mrs. Stewart agree: "Continued emphasis on the home and family life."

Jewish Sunday School to Meet

The Jewish Sunday School of Central Contra Costa County will hold its next meeting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Isadore Perlman, 1158 Glen Road, Lafayette, Monday at 8 p.m.

The election of officers and hiring of next year's teachers will be discussed, along with many other important matters. It is important that all parents attend, as well as parents of children entering Sunday School next term, who are cordially invited.

Realtors Hear Don Doyle Speak

Assemblyman Donald Doyle, who was the guest speaker at the Contra Costa Realtors Mart Breakfast Monday morning, gave the Realtors a summary of the pending legislation of interest to this part of the county.

Doyle believes that the highway bills affecting our county will be successful, and that our fight to get a larger share of the gas tax money is being won. The "unincorporated areas" bill is now on the Governor's desk and there is every reason to believe that it will be signed.

The speaker for the Mart breakfast Monday, will be Ben Jones, Superintendent of the Associated Oil Company's plant at Avon, California.

Jones has long been a resident of Contra Costa County, and is familiar with our problems.

Local Symphony Tuesday Concert

The spectacular Mozart double concerto for harp and flute performed by Lafayette's LuRene Mattson on the harp and Mrs. Alice Thomson of Concord on the flute and accompanied by the full orchestra, is the special feature offered by the Contra Costa Symphony at their second annual spring concert to be given in Acacales High School gym Tuesday at 8 p.m.

The concert is free to the public. This orchestra, which has now reached 70 in number, is made up of the Acacales Community Orchestra and the East Contra Costa Junior College Community Orchestra and is under the joint directorship of Allen Scholl of Walnut Creek and Oscar Busch of Lafayette.

IN ADDITION to accompanying Mrs. Mattson and Mrs. Thompson in the concerto the orchestra will play the following numbers:

Beethoven Symphony No. 1, "Invitation to the Dance" by von Weber, "March and Procession of Bacchus" by Delibes, "Patrol of the Toy Soldiers" by Pierre and "Procession of The Grail" from "Parsifal" by Wagner.

THE ORCHESTRA has been rehearsing this program faithfully for many weeks, and according to Oscar Busch is in fine form. On May 12, the orchestra had a distinguished visitor in the person of Mr. Merrill Jordan, flutist with the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra. "Extraordinarily fine performance. Much better than I expected. Full credit to any professional" were Mr. Jordan's reactions on hearing the orchestra.

"This orchestra is a miracle," says Mrs. Mattson. "In these days of hurry and rush to find enough people in any community who are willing to spare the many hours and the effort necessary to give such a performance is unusual and a thing of which the entire community can be proud."

The concert will be repeated on June 3 at the Williams School in Concord.

AMONG THE PERSONNEL of the orchestra are: Lafayette: Barbara Davis, Françoise Larsen, Carbon Weber, Betsy Correllson, Lucille Ogden, Oscar Busch, Betsy Schneider, David Gilbert, Donald Holmes, Nancy Smith, Howard Walker, David Carlson, Philip Shoptaugh, Fred Arbogast, Martin Hagen and Richard Pape.

From Orinda: Laura Dempster and Mario Guenther. From Walnut Creek: Dr. Alfred Smith, Charles Jones, Shelley Jones, Ida Tobias, Allen Scholl, David Comstock and William Eustis.

Concert Series Drive Success

A complete sell-out of 1140 memberships was the result of the six-day drive of the Acacales Community Concert Association. The drive closed Saturday at noon after a whirlwind membership campaign conducted by sixty-five workers plus chairmen and managers.

"Congratulations are in order to the workers and to the community," says the jubilant Lyman Stoddard, president of the association. Phosphorous an Essential Plant Food—But It's One That's Commonly Lacking

By BERT WRIGHT

(This is the second of a series of articles on plant nutrients.)

MOST SOILS CONTAIN very little natural phosphorus. This element existed originally as one component of a mineral called "apatite." Because of the weathering processes which changed minerals into actual soil, much of this original phosphorus has been broken down and lost.

This loss from weathering, plus the fact that there was very little apatite in soils in the first place, makes phosphorus the most seriously deficient plant nutrient nearly everywhere.

MUCH OF THE NATIVE soil phosphorus is in a form that plants cannot use.

Also, many soils have the unfortunate ability to "tie up" some of the phosphates that are applied to them in forms that plant roots cannot utilize.

Therefore, complete plant food is formulated so as to provide a good supply of phosphorus in the mixture.

LIKE NITROGEN, phosphorus is utilized as a constituent of various compounds formed in growing plants.

Since it is one of the constituents that go into fats (found largely in seeds), it follows that it is essential for seed formation.

Phosphorus is also very necessary in the early growth of the plant, since it stimulates root formation.

Realtors To Attend Quarterly Meeting

Local realty board members now serving as state directors of the California Real Estate Association will participate in a quarterly Board of Directors meeting today and tomorrow, May 22 and 23.

R.E. Wadsworth, president of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board, announced the meeting will be held in San Jose.

that in order to have quickly maturing, high quality vegetables and brilliant blooms on flowering plants, the use of balanced, phosphorus-containing plant food is essential.

Extreme phosphorus deficiency in plants is indicated by a purpling of the leaves and is particularly well demonstrated in tomatoes and corn.

During a cold, wet spell early in the season, tomatoes, corn and members of the cabbage family are very likely to turn purplish because of a temporary phosphorus deficiency caused by a slowing down of root action.

If the soil is well supplied with phosphorus, this situation will correct itself with the advent of warmer weather.

As long as plenty of phosphorus is available to plants, they can effectively utilize lots of nitrogen.

But if there is an over-supply of nitrogen in relation to phosphorus, excessive weak, spindly growth, slow maturity and poor blooming or fruiting will result.

Gas and electricity are cheap in California

How P. G. and E.'s low rates save the De Bruyns money

In their pretty Vallejo home, the De Bruyns use these appliances to make living more pleasant:

The De Bruyns' P. G. and E. bill for a recent month... $13.38

The same amount of gas and electricity in their former Eastern home would cost $31.10

P. G. and E. PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY

When Mr. and Mrs. De Bruyn moved West they found that gas and electricity cost much less in California. While nearly everything else has doubled in price, P. G. and E.'s combined rates are lower than in 1938. Let bargain gas and electricity do more of your work, make your life more comfortable.

You're Always

SHOP at HOME

and you GAIN these 5 Ways!

1. Your hometown merchant offers nationally-known merchandise at nationally established prices . . . the same prices you pay elsewhere.
2. Your local merchant guarantees what he sells.
3. Your hometown store does not offer poorer quality "sale" merchandise as leaders to bring you in.
4. Your local stores are here to serve you every day of the year.
5. You save money when you shop at home. Just figure in the cost of gas, oil, car depreciation, parking lot, baby sitter, lunches, etc., that you add on to the cost of your purchases when you DON'T Shop at Home.

And remember; your hometown merchant is your neighbor. His business pays taxes to help support your hometown needs . . . just as you do. He helps in all community affairs . . . just as you.

Mountain School Planned in Sierras

The Pinerest Mountain School for boys and girls of high school age will be held again this year by two teachers from Acalanes High School, it was reported last week.

George Houghton and Wilbur Twining announced that their summer school will open June 28, and will include three sessions.

The first session will be for boys of high school age and will last until July 12. A session for high school girls will be held from July 19 to August 2, and another session for boys will begin at the latter date.

Located half-way up the western slope of the Sierras, the school is limited to 30 pupils per session.

Purpose of the summer school is to teach the natural sciences in a field school, using the Sierra Nevada as a laboratory. Field trips are planned.

Local educators on the school's advisory board include Willis C. Branch, Dr. Ralph Hall, Victor Lindblad, Dr. Paul R. Needham and Eugene Wood Smith.

Coaches Hold County League Meeting, Reaffirm 'No Batting Practice' Stand

By ERWIN MATTSON

A county league meeting was held last week at Mt. Diablo High and a good deal of important legislation was enacted.

One of the surprise movements was the announcement that starting with the 1953 season the league will have two new members in Las Lomas and Pleasant Hill high schools who will enter league competition in all activities as far as athletics are concerned with the exception of football. Varsity competition in the pigskin game is planned for the new members in the 54-55 season.

PRIOR TO THE MEETING it was generally accepted that such a move would not take place for another year.

The move definitely effected practice schedules as each school is allowed one practice tilt in basketball and baseball.

The one practice game rule certainly creates coaching problems with little chance to experiment regarding lineup and squad personnel.

A league division is inevitable in the not too distant future with Mt. Diablo and Acalanes School Districts each planning for another new four year school which would make an unwieldy group of eleven schools. The odd number such as this years 7, next years 9 and the futures 11 presents problems of scheduling, as each week one school draws a bye and extends the length of time necessary to complete league play.

Another move afoot is to hold the county league meet in track at Mt. Diablo High each year with each school taking turns running the meet off. Mt. Diablo is the only league school with meet facilities and bleacher space sufficient to run the spring event off in an efficient manner.

THE MEET is a highlight of spring sports and draws a large crowd which is getting bigger every year. It looks to be a wise move.

The Baseball league as predicted produced one of the best races in a long long time. Better than seventy five per cent of the games were decided by a one run margin indicating the closeness of competition.

Antioch looks to be the winner at this point but have dropped two games at this writing and won four of their eight wins by one run. In two of the wins they were trailing going into the final frame and in one had to go an extra inning to decide the issue.

One other item regarding baseball is in connection with a reaffirming of the coaches ruling that no batting practice be held by either team prior to a game.

Time is an important factor in high school ball where academics classes are involved. Games are scheduled at 4 o'clock in order to interfere with studies as little as possible.

BATTING PRACTICES take lots of time and their value from a statistical study are certainly questionable.

Professional ball does a lot of practice batting before games for several reasons. First they usually play every day but Monday and its their only time for practice sessions.

Second is showmanship. Good down the groove throwing gives the hitters a chance to knock the horseshoe around, giving satisfaction to players and fans who like to see those "hits."

Third is tradition. It's something that has been done since the games inception and is looked upon as a part of pro ball.

Figures show that batting practice has little if any value when the game is on and the chips are down.

The psychological effect is had when one team has hitting practice and the other doesn't, particularly if the one who didn't loses.

The league coaches recommend that no batting practice be held prior to games two years ago and all but one coach has abided by the rule.

The reaffirming vote of last week made it mandatory that no hitting be engaged in during the warmup period, all of which tends to speed up the action.

Acalanes JV Nine Wallops Liberty

The Acalanes Junior Varsity baseball nine came through with some good ball when they tripped Liberty High of Brentwood by a 5-1 score in a game played at the Acalanes diamond May 13.

A good part of the credit goes to the Fresh port side hurler, Mike Barrett, who gave up but three hits over the 7-inning route while whiffing eight.

The Don Babes scored their initial run in the second frame when Dick Austin led off with a booming double to left and scored standing up on John Conley's sharp single to right center.

Liberty knotted the count at 1 all when they scored on two singles in the third inning.

That marked the end as far as Liberty's scoring was concerned with Barrett having things well in control the rest of the way while his teammates insured a win when they scored two in the fourth and came back for another pair of runs in the sixth.

Warren Johnson and John Conley paced the winners with each getting two for three.

All of the blows were singles.

Local Swimmer In Benefit Meet

One of the top junior swimmers of the nation, "Corky" Kiesel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Kiesel of Walnut Creek, will compete in the day-long Olympic Fund Benefit stow Saturday, May 23 at the Tamalpais School for Boys in San Rafael.

Proceeds from this show will be donated to the United States Olympic fund.

Spotlighting the Strip ...

By KITTY COLE

RANCHO GRANDE WILL OPEN TONIGHT, (Thursday, May 21) and the local gentry will be dining in the beautiful coffee shop. Long awaited, and eagerly anticipated, the completely remodeled building will be a most attractive addition to the "strip."

The coffee shop is decorated in cool greens and yellows with an accent of red, and is so easy on the eyes. Comfortable booths, tables for two, or if you prefer, counter service.

One eye-catching part of the decor are the unusual wagon-wheel, lantern-decorated, over head lights, and the huge windows give such spaciousness to the room. The bar is open, of course, and there will be a dining area just off the main entrance, should you want a more leisurely meal.

The prices are reasonable, the menu, varied, and the coffee shop will be open around the clock. And to ROSE and AL MORTARA, go my best wishes for your success.

Another new advertiser joins my group next week. To many of you who have asked what happened to "CASEY" the fine chef, formerly at the S.O.S. RESTAURANT. He now has his own place, but more on this next week.

Everybody and his mother was out on Tunnel Strip recently to fete mom on "her day." The local clubs and restaurants did the biggest business since New Year's Eve.

EL NIDO RANCHO, which can take care of the largest crowds, opened the patio and banquet room and was still unable to seat everyone.

DANNY VAN ALLEN had S.R.O. CAPE COD HOUSE did a turn away business, and FREDDIE'S PIZZERIA had to close before 10 p. m. (they are usually open 'til 4 a.m.) because they ran out of food. Have you noticed the many, many cars parked in front of the LAFAYETTE SEA FOOD GROTTTO every noon and night? The reason: the marvelous seafood prepared by Adolph and Barbara Panfill, the owners. And at such amazingly reasonable prices. Try it! Say Kitty Cole.

Two of our popular "strip" personalities have been grabbed by the PALM GARDEN in Albany. JIMMY RODGERS, that great pianist who has played along the strip and HART CHAN, originator of PLANTER'S D O C K ' S delicious Chinese-American menu, who is the new chef.

Top prize for the contestants will be the L. H. Lincoln Perpetual Trophy which goes to the golfer with the lowest gross score. Last year's trophy winner was Jack White with a 71.

Other prizes include trophies for the low net score by an association member and low net score in the guest flight. Awards will also be given for the longest drive on the eighteenth hole and for the golfer most closely approaching a hole in one on the fifth hole.

Winners will receive their awards at the tourney dinner set for 7 p. m. tonight at the Orinda Country Club.

Don Tankman Go To Palo Alto to Split Swim Meet

The Acalanes Bee swim team came through with a win against powerful Palo Alto High while the Varsity came mighty close to upsetting a Palo Alto team that boasts 103 straight dual meet wins, when the local swimmers traveled to Palo Alto Wednesday afternoon.

IN THE VARSITY encounter, the outcome rested on the final event of the day, the 200-yard freestyle relay.

Palo Alto eked out the win with a smashing 1:42.4 with the Don team composed of Phil Condit, Bob Harrison, Charles Knobel and John Sullivan posting a 1:43.0 of their own which was 1.2 seconds under Acalanes school records and with the relay win went the meet with the scorebook giving the Dons 32 points to Palo Alto's 43.

THE DONS really made a battle of it with Brooks de Laneux taking the 100-yard breaststroke with a new record time of 1:08.2 and Knobel set a new school mark of :57.2 in the 100-yard freestyle to break the old record of :57.3 set by Dick Hubach.

In the Bee meet the final tally put the Don Babes out in front with a 36-30 count with three record-breaking performances contributing to the win.

In the 100-yard breaststroke Jack Gray set a new record with his 1:15.1.

TIM FREEMAN put his name on the record books with his 32.4 in the 50-yard backstroke while the medley relay team composed of Freeman, Gary Coleman and Rod Kistinger became co-record holders in the 75-yard medley with a 4:16.

Gray capped the first to lead the Bee pool makers with 10 points while Jim Small did likewise for the varsity.

Don Sports Head for Windup Next Week

Don Mermen Split Tamalpais Meet; JayVees Lose

The Acalanes varsity, minus one of their ace swimmers, still carried too much power as far as Tamalpais High was concerned when the Dons scored an impressive 48-18 win in a meet held at the Marin county pool last Friday afternoon.

The Dons copped every first place but one when Ken Keymore of Tamalpais took their lone first with a 1:13.9 in the 100 yard backstroke.

BROOKS DE LANEUX was a two time winner for Acalanes, capturing the 150 yard medley in 1:50.1 and scoring a win in the 100 yard breaststroke with a 1:10.4.

Tamalpais is rated the number 2 team in the North Bay League with Vallejo, whom the Dons defeated earlier, in the number 1 spot.

In the Bee meet the Dons dropped the first contest of the year when they were swamped 34½-22½.

THE LOSS WAS accounted for to a good extent by the transfer of several performers to the Class C meet which the Don little men won by a 29-12 count with Mike Bonner taking the spotlight when he broke teammate Jack Gray's mark in the 50 yard breaststroke with a 35.7 race.

Mike Ballachy was high point man for the Bee meet when he took the 50 yard free style in :28.6 and was a repeat winner with a 1:09.8 in the 100 yard free style.

In the varsity meet the Dons were minus the services of one of their top performers when Jim Small failed to show due to illness.

Builders Golf Outing at Orinda

The sixth annual golf tournament of the Associated Home Builders of the Greater Eastbay will be held at the Orinda Country Club today.

Teetoff time will be 1 p. m., according to the joint announcement made yesterday by Phil Heraty and Ed McGah, tourney co-chairmen.

Assisting with the arrangements are Fred F. Chopin, Glen Groom, John E. Kenney and Jack Scam-mell.

Top prize for the contestants will be the L. H. Lincoln Perpetual Trophy which goes to the golfer with the lowest gross score. Last year's trophy winner was Jack White with a 71.

Other prizes include trophies for the low net score by an association member and low net score in the guest flight. Awards will also be given for the longest drive on the eighteenth hole and for the golfer most closely approaching a hole in one on the fifth hole.

Winners will receive their awards at the tourney dinner set for 7 p. m. tonight at the Orinda Country Club.

Don Varsity Nine Knocks Out Win Over Albany

The Acalanes Varsity nine played one of its best, if not its best game of the season May 14 when they toppled the Albany Cougars by a 6-2 score.

Red Jones started on the mound for the Dons and proved most effective as he kept Albany's seven hits scattered and would-be hitters well in check when it counted most.

ALBANY'S TWO runs came in the fourth inning when Joe Dorsey singled and he came home, with two away, when Ray McKinney hit what appeared to be a line drive single to center which was misjudged by centerfielder Dick Davis and the blow went for a home run.

The Dons had established a first inning lead of 2-0 when Richie Munn was on when hit by a pitched ball.

Jerry Henderson singled and both came home on Benny Edgar's single to left field.

The Dons added four runs in the fourth when Ferro was on via an error on a wide throw and scored with Red Jones cracking out a triple to right center.

SECONDS LATER Jones scored when the Albany leftfielder dropped a fly ball off the bat of Bob Dwight.

Munn made it two on when he was hit by a pitched ball for the second time in the game and both crossed home plate when Jerry Henderson and Dick Davis pounded out successive singles.

The inning and scoring for the Dons ended when Edgar grounded out, pitcher to first.

THE DONS collected but five hits but got them when they counted most.

The Dons were aided by four Albany errors and retaliated in part by committing two miscues themselves.

The win knocked Albany out of a first place tie with Antioch.

Caswell To Drive Hardtop Tonight

Bob Caswell, Walnut Creek racing star, will have a new engine in his Number 6 hardtop tonight when the BCRA returns to Contra Costa Stadium.

After winning the main event at Oakland last week, Caswell was maneuvering through the main event traffic at the local speedway last Friday when he scrambled his engine. The owner of the racer has installed a new "mill," so the Walnut Creek pilot will be able to return to action on his favorite track.

Fred Lutz, another Walnut Creek driver, is expected to be in the middle of the action tonight after making his 1953 debut last week.

Time trials will open the program at 7:15 p.m. with the eight fastest cars rolling in the first heat an hour later.

City League Ball Teams Start Preps

Lights are burning in the Walnut Creek City Park these nights as Softball Association teams practice for the opening of the season June 1.

Tiny's Hut, defending champions, will field a team again this year along with the Super Saver Market. Four newcomer nines will be sponsored by Aerle 2575 of Eagles, Gro-dins of California, Forbrag Realtors and "Parks Air Force Base.

The association will sponsor an invitational tournament at the latter part of the season.

Hector B. Miles, president of the association, pointed out that money to run the league is taken in through voluntary collections at the games and through profits from the hot dog stand.

Miles listed league expenses as: umpires, $10 per night; baseballs, 14 dozen at $21 per dozen; score keeper and announcer, $2 per night; new bases, $34; contingency fund, $50 per season, and hot dog stand manager, $3 per night.

Ex-Dons Glitter In Collegiate Sport Endeavors

Word has been received on a number of former Don athletes who are doing better than all right in collegiate circles.

Lloyd Torchio, who made his letter in his sophomore year at Cal, has started spring football practice and is definitely a candidate for a first string berth.

LAST SEASON he was one of few centers who could go both ways. The new substitute rule for collegiate play will make him more valuable than ever. A top competitor with a splendid attitude and leadership qualities, 1953 should find Lloyd one of the best in the coming grid season, providing Uncle Sam doesn't take him on an extended vacation from collegiate football.

ANOTHER FORMER Don has copped additional honors in collegiate circles in the person of the all around athlete Bob Borghesani. Bob was picked by the Acalanes coaches as the best all around athlete of the year at the end of the 1951-52 high school season.

On the basis of what he has done in junior college play the pick was a good one. Bob was a star on the grid eleven and picked on the all conference team.

In the recently completed season of hoop play he led the team in scoring and topped off a season of sterling play by being named to the all conference basketball team.

He has been one of the top hurlers on the baseball team and served as an all around utility man when not chucking the horseshoe.

Sports activities round out the 1953 season next week, with some activities concluding their season today.

Swimming goes to the north coast section meet at Santa Clara today and tomorrow. The Dons boast an impressive seasonal record and figure to be among the top three when the events wind up tomorrow.

Competition is keen and much will depend on how points are split by those who do not figure to win. All entries are in and only meet time will disclose coaching strategy regarding events.

If such stars as Keppel of Albany cut in for points on such power as Palo Alto and Berkeley, the Dons could win, but if it cuts in on the Dons it could knock them out of title contention.

Mike White winds the track season up all by his lonesome, as he was the only one to qualify for next Friday's State Meet at Fresno where he will compete in the high jump.

Baseball winds up the season Tuesday on the Albany diamond in a game which was rained out earlier in the season. The Dons have been in the groove as far winning goes after upsetting Albany two weeks ago.

Red Jones, the Dons sophomore ace, rates the call and will be 50 to repeat an earlier win.

Tennis winds up its season the same day as they cross rackets on the Albany courts.

Albany has lost but one dual meet and that to the Dons in first round play. The winner of this one will be crowned the dual meet champ.

Acalanes, paced by Len Wilmont, is favored to repeat the earlier win.

Don Racketeers Take County Meet

The Acalanes netmen proved to be the class of the county when they picked up all of the marbles in the county meet at Alhambra High School last Saturday.

Les Wilmont, ace of the Don squad, walked away with the singles title while Don Rathjen and Jerry Gray won the county doubles.

The Don winners are entered by Coach Bob Lord in the North Coast meet set for Berkeley High courts starting at 9:30 A.M. tomorrow.

The Primers are a group of high school agers who are more interested in auto appearance than speed.
